

Bridging the Gap: Cross-Border Marine Planning in the Severn Estuary

Monday 3rd December, Viridor Theatre, SS Great Britain, Bristol

Workshop Agenda

Time	Activity
09:45	Coffee, Tea & Registration
10:10	Presentation: John Harrison and Lucy Taylor, Severn Estuary Partnership Welcome & Introduction to the Partnership
10:25	Presentation: Amy Willcocks, Marine Management Organisation (MMO) - Marine Planning in the South West
10:45	Presentation: Rachel Mullholland, Welsh Government – Welsh National Marine Plan
11:05	Presentation: Dr Heather Ritchie, Ulster University Transboundary Marine Spatial Planning on the Island of Ireland: Opportunities for a Positive Change
11:25	Refreshments
11:50	Workshop Session 1 - Coordinating Across Marine Plan Boundaries: How can we improve integration of marine plans and marine planning processes across borders?
12:45	Lunch
13:45	Workshop Session 2 – The Land and the Sea: How can we move towards a more joined-up 'catchment to coast' system?
14:35	Refreshments
14:50	Workshop Session 3 - Our Existing Planning Landscape: How can we better coordinate marine plans and marine planning processes with other regional, Severn Estuary-focussed plans?
15:30	Plenary
15:45	Workshop Close

The workshop is being delivered as part of the Marine Management Organisation's Enhancing Stakeholder Engagement project, funded by the European Maritime and Fisheries Fund.

Marine
Management
Organisation